

Teacher Feedback from CSDCU Sponsored Schools:

Amanda Mayes says...

- Thank you very much for the banzai financial education materials. My students have really been enjoying the program and learning so much about budgeting and managing their money. What a wonderful program!

Student Feedback from CSDCU Sponsored Schools:

N. Herrera's students learned...

- So many unavoidable expenses that just kept coming at you over and over. It was a very informative game.
- I need to budget more smartly
- I got a better understanding on how to pay bills and what my parents have/had to do.
- Banzai helped me how budget money for expenses, how to take care of things. and how to prepare for my future. and i am truly grateful that she gave us this website. it has helped a lot.
- It is very easy to go deep into debt really quick.
- That it's important to pay for insurance in case of emergencies happened.
- One thing I learned in Banzai was how to budget money to prepare easier for expenses in the future.

M. Arthur's students learned...

- That unexpected expenses come up and you have to be smart about saving for that.
- I learned how to handle and save my money.

J. Burke's students learned...

- Honestly, my parent have taught me a lot on personal finances. However, this kind of helped me realize that it is important to have a steady paycheck in order to pay your bills on time.
- Money is a lot more difficult to manage than it looks.
- You never want to go bankrupt

T. Watson's students learned...

- I learned how to split money equally and what money is worth and how to spend money and a pay check.
- Budgeting is harder than it looks.
- One thing that I learned that its hard to be a adult
- I learned not to buy a bunch of useless stuff.
- One thing that I learned in Banzai that I didn't know before was all the technical definitions of all the words that I would need to know for the future.

J. Jarrett's students learned...

- I am replaying the game and I have learned a lot. This game is fun and I think I can handle the real world.
- I didn't know I could earn this much money in a few months.
- I didn't know I could save that much money.

F. Andrews's student learned...

- how much work these bills take.
- I learned what it is really like for our parents.

- Budgets... and saving up goodness gracious how do y'all do this it got me so stress I made it to college but let me just say I'm broke now and i have no money left and they only money i have is utilities.
- that you just can't be spending money a lot

A. Mayes's student learned...

- Using this website, I have learned how to manage money. This was an interesting game because it gives me an exposure to the real world.
- I've learned how to manage my accounts and save my money according to a budget
- I learned on how to save and spend money on specific things.
- How to manage my money. And I also learned how to put my money in groups
- It's hard being a grown up because you have to worry about bills, food, rent, insurance, and other belongings and you have to pay these things every month so if you don't have a job you can't pay off your needs. So I learned that being a grown up is hard and if you don't have a job your POOR!